2050 Metropolitan Vision for Europe
Resilient urban and rural transformation for a climate neutral future

Filipe Ferreira
Lisbon Metropolitan Area

Metrex/Urban Intergroup Meeting
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Main Goals of 2050 Metropolitan Vision for Europe</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Position Metropolitan level as EU governance level regarding Cohesion Policy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>EU Metro Areas as focal points for the resolution of social complex problems</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Showcase Metro Areas policy solutions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Foster the Cocreations with EU stakeholders of a new generation of policy instruments</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Develop a new metropolitan integrated approach regarding EU twin transitions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Contribute to EU global leadership regarding twin transitions</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2050 Metropolitan Vision for Europe: 5 priorities

Priority 1: Raise political awareness
Priority 2: Metro Actors engagement
Priority 3: Territorial implementation
Priority 4: A new generation of EU instruments
Priority 5: Monitoring and Evaluation
2050 Metropolitan Vision for Europe: Multi approach process: multilevel, multiactor

- Raise political awareness
  - EU Com
  - EU Parliament
  - CoR
  - National Governments

- Metro Actors Engagement
  - EU networks
  - Metro Areas
  - NGO’s
  - Academia
  - ...

- Territorial Implementation (other levels)
  - Local Authorities
  - Regional Authorities

- New generation of EU instruments
  - OP Metro Areas
  - Metro Capacity building Initiative (Like EQUAL)

- Monitoring and Evaluation
  - EU Metro Observatory
  - TIA (Territorial Impact Assessment) Approach as mainstream
2050 Metropolitan Vision for Europe